ICB Goals

1. Provide intercultural skill building and prejudice reduction workshops to -
   - Help educators and agency staff become more effective and successful in working with culturally diverse students and clients.
   - Help students, families, and agency clients become more skillful and successful in working within school, agency, and mainstream system cultures.
2. Collaborate with other non-profit organizations, schools and government agencies to organize workshops in their communities.
3. Provide intercultural skill building workshops at a minimal, affordable cost to participants.

ICB Workshops

ICB workshops are conducted by culturally diverse, certified facilitators. Workshops include a PowerPoint visual presentation, interactive activities, and participant manuals. Workshops can be developed to meet the specific needs of your school or agency.

2-3 day workshop topics:
- Assessing Your Work Environment for Intercultural Skillfulness
- Building Intercultural Communities
- Developing a Culturally Skillful Work Team
- Intercultural Leadership Skills for Teens
- Working with Culturally Diverse Families
- Facilitator Certification: Intercultural Community Builders
- Facilitator Certification: Intercultural Leadership Skills for Teens

This 3-day workshop teaches young people strategies that promote positive intercultural interactions.

Workshop Objectives:
- Teens will increase their understanding and appreciation of their own culture.
- Teens will improve their ability to work and interact with people from other cultures.
- Teens will learn strategies for reducing the impact of prejudice and oppression.
- Teens will learn and practice leadership skills to assist them in promoting positive intercultural relationships in their own schools and communities.

"The structured, guided practice activities allowed us to apply theoretical frameworks to real life situations. The experience gave me hope for our children and our future."

- Youth Program Director

Teen Vision Statement
